

JOIN AGAINST FUNSTON

General's Unexpected Return Due to Cabal of Cubans.

AMERICAN OFFICIAL HELPS

Leaders of Moderates Revived Old Grudge Against Him—Enmity Renewed from Funston's Leaving the Cuban Army in 1898—Taft Party Leave Havana on Saturday.

HAVANA, Oct. 10.—When Messrs. Taft and Bacon sail for home on the battle ship Louisiana, probably on Saturday, Gen. Funston will sail with them. This arrangement, which has caused a surprise in all quarters, was made to-day by Secretary Taft in the following statement:

"Bacon, Gen. Funston, and myself, returning as the peace commission, have affairs in the hands of Gov. Maunier and Gen. Bell. We all three have duties that await us. Gen. Funston was summoned by a hurry call from the Pacific Coast because he was well acquainted with many of the insurgent chiefs, and it was thought that he could aid us, as he did greatly, in bringing the men in arms to an agreement which he put through. He was not temporarily in command of the troops by my order merely as a convenience until Gen. Bell could take command. We three are now returning on the Louisiana to our permanent duties."

Animosity Toward Funston.

In spite of the official explanations, many persons firmly believe that Gen. Funston's recall is the result of a Cuban cabal against him. Gen. Funston served in the Cuban army. Early in 1898, when he wished to return to the United States, he was rebuffed by the War Department. He then came to the United States, and was appointed to the position of major in the United States army. He was then sent to the Philippines, and was killed in action. His death was a great loss to the United States. His recall to the United States is a subject of much interest to the Cuban people. They believe that he was recalled because of the animosity toward him that exists in the United States. They believe that he was recalled because of the fact that he was a hero of the Cuban revolution. They believe that he was recalled because of the fact that he was a hero of the Cuban revolution. They believe that he was recalled because of the fact that he was a hero of the Cuban revolution.

Cuban Holiday Observed.

A meeting of the most prominent Liberals was held to-day, and it was resolved to lend all support to the provisional government. To-day being the anniversary of the outbreak of the Ten Years' War in 1895, it was observed as a national holiday. The palace was decorated, flags were flying everywhere, and guns were booming. The display of uniforms on the Prado was truly glorious. Even for Cuba, Gen. Loynaz del Castillo, who is a hero of the Cuban revolution, and his picture taken nine times this morning to get an appetite for his breakfast. He received many messages from the Cuban militia, and from the Cuban people. He received many messages from the Cuban militia, and from the Cuban people. RUSE MAY HAVE COST LIFE.

Strange Development in Case of Victim of the "Bends."

New York, Oct. 10.—The case of a man said to be Daniel Casey, twenty-two years old, of 283 Third avenue, and died in the old hospital at the Mont tunnel yesterday of the "bends," was investigated to-day. The tunnel people said afterward that they had found to find that such person had died at the address named. None of the physicians attached to the tunnel service could remember having examined the man, and they evolved a peculiar theory. They believe that an argument was made by the physician as to the man's death. They believe that an argument was made by the physician as to the man's death. SCHOOLS ROBBED OF $500,000.

Police Magistrates of Chicago Accused of Wholesale Frauds.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 10.—Charges that Cook County justices of the peace and police magistrates have robbed the school fund of at least $500,000 in the last decade are to be investigated by the county commissioners. From the 120 justices and forty-four police magistrates, an average of $5,000 annually, has been received in fees, though their courts have been crowded day and night. The commissioners intimate that immense sums have been illegally withheld, and that still more, in fines and fees, has been remitted on account of political pull.

OPERA BOUFFE IN CUBA

Conditions on Island at Close of the Revolution.

Correspondence of The Washington Herald. Havana, Oct. 10.—Though the curtain has been rung down on the last act of Cuba's most recent comic opera—war—the artists of more or less successful companies has not been disbanded, and the popularity of the form of amusement is very apt to result in a revival of the production at a time when a big spectacular show, now being put up by Uncle Sam in Havana harbor, shall have concluded its present engagement, which is still of an indefinite nature.

WANTS VARYING RESERVE

Secretary Shaw Advocates Fluctuating Fund for Banks.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 10.—Hon. Leslie M. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury, addressed the members of the Kentucky State Bankers' Association this afternoon. He advocated a fluctuating reserve fund, and among other things he said: "The amount of reserve to be carried by national banks is now fixed by statute. It should be left with the Secretary of the Treasury to determine from time to time and as the exigencies of the case require. Evidently it was not the intention of Congress that this reserve should be encroached upon. If the statute required the Secretary of the Treasury to keep a reserve of ten tons of coal in the Treasury Building, no one would be foolish enough to criticize its use in case of a prolonged railway blockade."

Better, But Not Higher Priced

Good designs are not necessarily any more expensive than poor ones, but a well-designed piece of furniture is apt to sell quicker, and for this reason is actually worth more to the merchant.

Naturally every merchant tries to secure the best patterns. We not only try to secure the best, but we try to show you an entirely different assortment from any other store in the city.

You will find an individuality about our stock that gives you the impression that our goods are high priced—until you read the price tags.

The difference lies in the care with which our lines have been selected and our insistence on a guarantee from the makers that the goods shall prove absolutely reliable. Nor is there any time limit on the guarantee that we demand. This, of course, makes the manufacturers very careful to send us faultless goods, and this guarantee we pass on to you—without additional cost.

If you admire weathered oak furniture, you will find a big assortment here for the dining-room, den, or library—in designs that were chosen with our usual care.

MOSBY'S MEN IN REUNION

Regiment Will Meet with Its Former Foes Next Year.

Invitation from Eighth Illinois Is Accepted—Erection of Monument Discussed and Postponed.

Special to The Washington Herald. Richmond, Va., Oct. 10.—Sixty-two of the survivors of Col. John S. Mosby's famous command held their annual reunion in Lee Camp Hall here to-day. The meeting was informal, there being no welcoming address.

Much of the time was taken up in discussing an invitation of the Eighth Illinois Regiment to hold a reunion with them next year. The majority of the members expressed a desire to meet the Eighth for the first time unarmed, and in passing paid high tribute to this regiment, with which Mosby was several times in conflict. A committee, including the commander, was appointed to arrange for the reunion.

The following officers were elected: Hugh McIlheny, of Staunton, commander; J. S. Mason, first lieutenant commander; Ed. Thompson, second lieutenant commander; P. H. Rahm, third lieutenant commander; H. S. Ashby, adjutant; John S. Castleman, sergeant major.

The question of erecting a monument at Marshall, Va., was over to the next meeting. It being stated that Col. Mosby objected to the erection of the monument as long as he is alive.

The meeting closed with a banquet at Murphy's Hotel to-night, given by Joseph Bryan and presided over by Capt. J. S. Foster, the retiring commander. Mr. Bryan was unable to attend owing to a recent death in his family.
